

Christmas

→ Some people forget the true meaning of Christmas. Some people think it's about Santa Clause and gives, but no, it is not. It's a true story about a new born baby (which is Jesus) that saved the world.

→ It starts with a woman who spent all of her life in the church praying to God and being good. One day an angel came to her. She (Mary) was "frightened but the angel said "Rejoice Mary full of grace!" "You will have a son and you will call him Jesus, He will be the son of God". Mary did not understand she asked the angel: "How can this happen, since I am not married yet?"

The angel answered "The Holy spirit will come to you and it will be a miracle."

Mary was happy to obey God.

→ A few months later, the man that was taking care of Mary (Joseph) had to go to Bethlehem so taxes could be collected and he brought Mary with him. When they got there they went to the hotel but there was no room so they went to a cave to let the baby be born.

→ The first people to hear the news that Christ is born were the shepherds. An angel came down and told them but the shepherds were afraid but the angels said "Don't be afraid. Christ is born in your cave." They ran to their cave as fast as they could to worship Him.

→ Once they saw the star, later three wise men set off for the king. They went on and on until it stopped on top of a house they brought gold, frankincense
and myrrh. Th

→ This really what Christmas is about. I like to celebrate by going to church.
